

The University of Toledo 2013 Outstanding Staff Awards

Do you know a UT staff member who exceeds their job expectations? Who goes above and beyond his or her normal job requirements to enhance The University of Toledo's environment for students, staff, faculty, patients and the community? Please consider nominating that individual for an Outstanding Staff Award.

Nominees will be acknowledged at an awards program on April 22, 2013 at the Ingman Room in the Student Union on the Bancroft Street campus from 6 pm - 8 pm. Two individuals in each of the three staff categories, (AFSCME, CWA, PSA) will be selected as the top awardees in their category, and one individual will be selected from the UTPPA organization. Nominations are confidential and will be accepted from faculty, staff, patients, students, administrators and the community.

Eligible nominees must be a current full-time UT staff member from any campus who is from the four above mentioned categories with at least five years of service to The University of Toledo. Previous award recipients, faculty and senior administration are not eligible.

Nominations must be received by April 12, 2013. Please either mail the nomination form to Meghan Rayfield in the Human Resources Office (Mail Stop 205) or email to [Meghan.Rayfield@utoledo.edu](mailto: Meghan.Rayfield@utoledo.edu). Selection committees for the awards process consists of peers from the above mentioned individual organizations and previous winners in each category. Award recipients will be notified ahead of time and will receive an invitation to the April 22 event along with one guest. For questions on the nomination process, selection process or the event contact Christine Smallman, [Christine.Smallman@utoledo.edu](mailto: Christine.Smallman@utoledo.edu)
