

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Graduates:

Welcome to The University of Toledo's 2017 Spring Commencement Ceremony. We also welcome family, friends and all who have supported you during your time at The University of Toledo. While you have done the work, this is a milestone all can celebrate.

This ceremony marks the end of a journey that has been long and incredibly rewarding. However, the word commencement, by definition, means a beginning. While we celebrate the closure of one chapter in your lives, we are here to mark the beginning of the next. Your hard work, dedication and diligence have opened doors for you that you must now venture through.

Your new degree provides you with much more than career opportunities. It represents the education that you have received here at The University of Toledo. No matter your major, your degree speaks to your critical thinking and analytical skills. These are essential skills in our society. You have all the tools to become leaders in your careers and your communities. We need you to accept this challenge and lead in the right direction during the decades to come.

As you approach new opportunities, remember that you are leaving here as an alumnus of The University of Toledo. Embedded in your degree is a network of support spread across the globe. I urge you to take advantage of it and get involved. UT has a proud tradition of alumni reaching back to help lift the next generation of graduates up – a tradition I have no doubt you will continue.

Finally, I want to say on behalf of The University of Toledo Board of Trustees, its faculty and staff, alumni and supporters, that we are proud of your accomplishments and even more proud to have been a part of this dynamic part of your lives. When you walk away from campus today, remember that our door will always remain open to you, and we hope to see you again soon!

Sincerely,

CHRISTINE BRENNAN

AWARD-WINNING JOURNALIST, USA TODAY SPORTS
COLUMNIST, AUTHOR AND TELEVISION COMMENTATOR

Toledo native Christine Brennan is an award-winning, national sports columnist for USA Today, a commentator for ABC News, CNN, PBS NewsHour and National Public Radio, a best-selling author and a nationally-known speaker.

Twice named one of the country's top 10 sports columnists by the Associated Press Sports Editors, she has covered the last 17 Olympic Games.

Brennan was the first female sports writer at the Miami Herald in 1981 and the Washington Post's first female beat writer for the Washington Redskins in 1985. She was the first president of the Association for Women in Sports Media (AWSM) and started an internship-scholarship program that has supported more than 140 female students during the past two decades.

Brennan is the author of seven books. Her 2006 sports memoir, Best Seat in the House, is the only father-daughter memoir written by a sports journalist. Her 1996 national best-seller, Inside Edge, was named one of the top 100 sports books of all-time by Sports Illustrated.

Brennan is a leading voice on some of the most controversial and important issues in sports. Her USA Today column in April 2002 on Augusta National Golf Club triggered the national debate on the club's lack of female members. In December 2002, Sports Illustrated's Golf Plus section named her one of golf's 12 heroes of the year. Ten years later, Brennan broke the news that Augusta National was admitting its first two female members. She also broke the story of the pairs figure skating scandal at the 2002 Salt Lake City Olympics and the Russian judging scandal at the 2014 Sochi Games.

Brennan earned undergraduate and master's degrees in journalism from Northwestern University. She is a member of the Ohio Women's Hall of Fame, Northwestern's Medill School of Journalism Hall of Achievement and the Washington, D.C., Sports Hall of Fame. She has received honorary degrees from Tiffin (Ohio) University and The University of Toledo, and is a member of Northwestern's Board of Trustees.

Brennan's honors include the 1993 Capital Press Women's "Woman of Achievement;" the University of North Carolina's 2002 Reed Sarratt Distinguished Lecturer; the U.S. Sports Academy's Ronald Reagan Award in 2002; the Jake Wade Award from the College Sports Information Directors of America in 2003; AWSM's Pioneer Award in 2004 and Service Award in 2016; the Woman of the Year by WISE (Women in Sports and Events) in 2005; the inaugural Women's Sports Foundation Billie Award for Journalism in 2006; Chi Omega's 2006 Woman of Achievement Award, Northwestern University's Alumni Service Award in 2007 and Yale's Kiphuth medal in 2013.

Both the NCAA and the Women's Sports Foundation honored her during Title IX 40th anniversary celebrations in 2012.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Robes and hoods worn during the commencement are steeped in tradition that dates to the 11th century, when the monks who administered Oxford University in England wore shoulder capes to protect themselves from scratches when they gathered alms, and hoods to protect their shaven heads from the cold. Eventually, the garb was worn daily to serve as both insulation from the damp and cold inside the university's walls and as identification that one had permission to pass into specific college buildings.

Similar practices were later adopted by the monks who administered Cambridge University in England in the 12th century, and in later years by other universities administered by the Benedictine, Franciscan and Dominican monks across much of western Europe.

In the United States, the academic robes and hoods were first adopted as ceremonial attire for college officials in 1754 at the institution now known as Columbia University. In 1885, students in many of the country's colleges and universities launched a movement to permit graduating candidates to wear robes and caps during the commencement. Eight years later, an intercollegiate commission of university officials adopted the country's first code of color and design for the academic garb. Faculty soon adopted the custom of wearing gowns at commencement and other academic ceremonies. Although the code has been revised many times, today's academic regalia represents those modifications accepted in 1960 and adopted by nearly 95 percent of the nation's postsecondary institutions.

In the United States today, the academic robe is most often black; some institutions, however, sanction the use of specific colors. The length of the robe, the width of the sleeves' borders, and the length of the hood all increase with each advanced degree.

Colors in the hoods identify both the specific field of study in which the degree was earned, as shown by the velvet border, as well as the institution which granted it, as shown by the lining. The following color table provides a key to the fields of study represented by The University of Toledo's graduates, faculty, administrators and distinguished guests.

GRADUATION WITH DISTINCTIONS

Although many traditions of academe are treasured and maintained with rigor, others evolve to complement the distinct personality of the institution and its focus on students. Such was the case in the fall of 1995 at The University of Toledo, when it replaced its single campus-wide honors convocation with more personal ceremonies hosted by the dean and faculty of each academic college.

Changes in the convocation's format led to changes in how faculty select and recognize outstanding students within their respective colleges. One significant change has been the awarding of medallions to graduates of the University Honors Program.

The University recognizes outstanding academic achievement based on grade point average in the law and baccalaureate colleges by awarding the degree Cum Laude (with Honors), Magna Cum Laude (with High Honors) and Summa Cum Laude (with Highest Honors). At the associate level, this designation is High Scholarship.

In addition, the University now bestows colored cords to honor all baccalaureate and associate candidates who qualify for graduation with distinction.

HONORS COLLEGE MEDALLIONS

The Honors College presents its graduating candidates with cast medallions that hang from gold ribbons and diplomas indicating the completion of all the Honors requirements of their baccalaureate colleges. These candidates, the Honors College dean and the directors of each college's honors program are wearing their medallions in today's ceremony. In order to qualify for graduation with the Honors College diploma and medallion, each student must maintain at least a 3.3 cumulative grade point average, earn a substantial number of credits through designated Honors courses, complete a thesis or research project and satisfy all the other requirements of his or her respective college's honors program.

HONORS CORDS

The University has awarded honors cords to all undergraduate candidates who will graduate with distinction. Blue and gold twisted cords have been awarded to each baccalaureate student who maintained a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.9 for all college work and who will be granted a diploma bearing the words Summa Cum Laude, the University's highest of three special honors. Blue cords have been awarded to each baccalaureate student maintaining a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.6 and who will graduate Magna Cum Laude, the University's second highest honor. Gold cords have been awarded to each baccalaureate student maintaining a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.3 and who will graduate Cum Laude, the University's third highest honor. White cords have been awarded to each associate student maintaining a cumulative grade point average of 3.3 or higher throughout his or her studies and who will graduate with High Scholarship.

MILITARY CORDS

Red, white and blue military honor cords recognize graduates who have served or are currently serving in the United States Armed Forces.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

The University of Toledo is a nationally-recognized, comprehensive, doctoral-granting, metropolitan research institution. The University was founded in 1872 by Jesup W. Scott, a public-spirited Toledoan, who donated 160 acres of land as an endowment for a university to train young people for roles in what Scott believed would be the “Future Great City of the World.” Called the Toledo University of Arts and Trades, it provided only a limited curriculum and closed its doors in 1875 due to a lack of funding. In 1884, the institution reopened as the Toledo Manual Training School after Scott’s sons gave the remaining assets of the University to the city.

In 1928, Toledo taxpayers approved a bond levy to raise funds to build a new, permanent home for the institution after many years of existing in temporary locations. Three years later, the University moved to the new Bancroft Street campus. The University continued as a municipal institution until 1967, when it joined Ohio’s system of public higher education.

On July 1, 2006, The University of Toledo merged with the Medical University of Ohio. The medical school was created by the state legislature in 1964 as a stand-alone institution to help meet the country’s urgent need for physicians. Originally housed in Lucas County’s former tuberculosis hospital, the Health Science Campus is located in south Toledo in buildings designed by the internationally-known architect Minoru Yamasaki. Through this merger, the University now offers undergraduate and graduate degrees in programs in the arts, humanities, social sciences, natural sciences, engineering, education, pharmacy, health professions, including nursing and medicine, and the law. It is one of only a handful of public institutions in the country that provides such a broad range of undergraduate, professional and graduate programs.

SEAL OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

The basic design has been used since 1931, when permission to use the coat of arms was granted by Don Jose Ballester, the mayor of Toledo, Spain. The seal recognizes the sister-city relationship between Toledo, Ohio, and Toledo, Spain. The University’s motto, inscribed in old Spanish at the base of the seal, reads: “Coadyuvando el Presente, Formando el Porvenir,” which translates to “Guide to the Present, Moulder of the Future.” The seal bears a large, blue eagle holding a shield divided into four segments. The upper left portion is from the original Spanish coat of arms. In 2006, the seal was changed to add three new shield quadrants to represent the University’s mission of education and research and the merger with the Medical University of Ohio. The banner below the eagle includes four dates: 1872, the year the University was founded; 1884, the year it became a municipal institution; 1967, the year it joined Ohio’s system of higher education; and 2006, the year it merged with the Medical University of Ohio.

LETTER FROM ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Alum:

As you proceed down the aisle today, you carry much more than a diploma. You are leaving the world as a student and entering the “Global Economy.” You will take something that will always be a part of your life – The University of Toledo. Although the classes may be finished, the memories of your college days will never end. It’s here that you grew intellectually and socially, both in and out of the classroom. This is where you made the grade and established the foundations of your future.

As one of the newest graduates from “The University of Toledo,” you join our large family of more than 150,000 living degree holders from the former Medical University of Ohio and The University of Toledo. Our alumni are as diverse as the many graduation years they represent, yet all are secure in the knowledge that a degree from The University of Toledo leads to success. Be as proud of being a University of Toledo graduate as the University is of you at this milestone in your life.

Whether you successfully take that diploma to Thailand or share your knowledge here in Toledo, we want to hear about your new accomplishments, and we want you to hear about your University and classmates. Your University of Toledo Alumni Association is here for you. Join us and let us hear from you. Please notify us whenever there’s a change in your address or a change in your life. If you let us know about that new position or that new addition, we can let your friends and classmates know, too. If you need information or assistance, call or stop by our office. We are here for you. We really do want to hear from you. We will be your link with the University that helped you grow and mature.

Congratulations, and thank you for allowing The University of Toledo and its people to be a part of your life.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink that reads "Stuart F. Cubbon". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Stuart F. Cubbon, JD '81, MBA '98
President
The University of Toledo Alumni Association

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER

Oh Say! Can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there,
Oh, say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

ALMA MATER
